REBELS TO BE MASSSED FOR ACTION

Villa Orders Concentration of Scattered Forces for Attack on Torreón

REPORTED HUERTA IS TO LEAD FEDERAL TROOPS

Lind Doubts Huerta's Good Faith in Offer to Resign in Favor of de la Barra

CHIHUAHUA, Jan. 21.—The scattered rebel forces throughout the states of Chihuahua, Durango and Coahuila have been ordered to concentrate along the railroad north of Torreón, in Coahuila state, against which the next rebel move is to be made. The concentration order was issued personally by General Villa, who will lead the attack. If Torreón falls, Villa is expected to resume his march on the capital at once. There is much excitement over the reports that General Huerta will personally lead the federal troops.

REBEL FORCE BELIEVED ON WAY TO MATAMORAS
LAREDO, Texas, Jan. 21.—Several hundred rebel soldiers who have been encamped near San Ignacio, forty miles south of here, are believed today to have started for Matamoras. Federalists sent from Nuevo Laredo to engage the rebels found the camp deserted.

HUERTA OFFERS TO RESIGN IN FAVOR OF DE LA BARRA
VERA CRUZ, Jan. 21.—It is understood here that the proposition made to John Lind, the special American representative to Mexico, by Jesus Flores Magon, who represents President Huerta, was that President Huerta should resign and that Senor Francisco de la Barra, formerly provisional president, should succeed him. From superficial appearances Mr. Lind seems to be doubtful of the good faith of the offer.

MORMON UP ON WHITE SLAVE CHARGE

Thos. Major Flees to Los Angeles With Girl from Smith's Own Household

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 21.—Thomas Major, aged 29, said to be an official of the Mormon church of Glasgow, Scotland, was arrested today by secret service men on the charge of white slavery. It is alleged Major brought here from Salt Lake a girl named Nellie Hawthorne, aged 21, formerly employed in the household of President Joseph Smith of the Mormon church. His arrest followed a wire from Smith sent personally to W. C. Jannsen, former head of the Mormons here, telling him to put the federal authorities on the trail.

The girl will be held here as a witness. For the present she will be cared for by James Robinson, leader of the Mormons in Southern California. Detective Bowen, who made the arrest at the bungalow which he says the couple occupied, declared today that Major has a wife and two children in Scotland. He says he paid the girl's fare here.

"ACCIDENT" VERDICT IN THE LANKFORD INQUEST
NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—"Unavoidable accident," was the verdict returned today by the coroner's jury in the case of Richard Lankford, vice-president of the Southern Railway, who was found dead on Friday in his apartment. He had been asphyxiated. The coroner had ordered the body to be returned to the apartments when an attempt was made to move it, stating that he had information rendering further investigation advisable. After the inquest, the body was released.

Noted Brain Specialist
Dies on Eve of Suit

Dr. Edward C. Spitzka, one of the most noted brain experts of America, whose works have been used in the courts for years in insanity cases, died just at the date was being set by the supreme court of New York for his examination in an alienation suit a few days had brought against him.

The doctor, who was about sixty-two years of age, was accused by Joseph Gershlag with having taken the affections of his wife, Gershlag wanted $50,000. The lawyers were in an office arranging that the doctor should testify January 16, when they received word over the telephone that he had been stricken with apoplexy and had passed away.

Dr. Spitzka had been in controversy with Professor Lombroso, the Italian criminologist, over questions in connection with insanity and the brain, and he was known to European men of science. Numberless lawyers have quoted him in court in insanity defenses, and he was looked on as one of the highest authorities by the courts.

CONGRESS WILL BE ADJOURNED EARLY

June 1 is Date Favored by Wilson—Wants Time for Campaign—May Take Stump

WANTS BIGGER MAJORITY OF DEMOCRATS IN SENATE

"Commoner" Praises Wilson for Currency Reform that Sets Fiscal World Free

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—The decks were cleared today for an early adjournment of Congress. Oscar Underwood, House majority leader, discussed the legislative program with President Wilson. The President wants adjournment by June 1. He thinks it imperative for the Democrats to increase their majority in the Senate, and probably will stump several states this fall in the interest of Democratic congressional candidates.

"COMMONER" PRAISES
WILSON'S CURRENCY REFORM
LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 21.—Strong praise of President Wilson was voiced editorially in today's issue of Bryan's Commoner, which says in part: "Currency reform is an established fact at last. For more than ten years different bodies of officials and semi-officials have investigated the currency problem, but the plans heretofore had in view the promotion of the interests of the financiers. No other President of recent years has been free to undertake currency reform from the standpoint of the people, but when the present executive took the oath of office he entered upon his duties without being under obligation to the special interests, and therefore was in a position to urge a change liberating the fiscal world from bondage."

RIOT PUT MORE IN 'FRISCO JAIL

Trouble Followed Attempt at Street Speaking—Lucy Parsons Was Jailed

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 21.—There are five more prisoners in jail today on charges growing out of the unemployment situation. Among them are Mrs. Lucy Parsons, whose husband was hanged in Chicago on the charge of participation in the Haymarket riots.

Three people were injured in the fighting last night that was accompanied by arrests. The property damage consisted of windows broken and store fronts injured by the clubs and stones thrown by the mob when the police appeared outside of Jefferson Square and attempted to prevent a meeting called to protest against the arrest of other persons. The trouble started when Mrs. Parsons attempted to speak from the curb.

MRS. PARSONS ARRESTED ON INCITING RIOT CHARGE
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 21.—Mrs. Lucy Parsons, the widow of Albert Parsons, one of the men hanged for participation in the Haymarket riots, was arrested here last night charged with inciting to riot. Mrs. Parsons led a crowd of unemployed men from Fillmore street, where they had been denied access to a hall, to Jefferson Square. An attempt was made there to hold an open-air mass meeting. The police dispersed the crowd and arrested Mrs. Parsons.

Several hundred of the men followed the police patrol wagon back to Fillmore street. The men formed in line on Fillmore street and smashed in several plate glass windows of unoccupied stores. Police reserves were called out and six men were taken into custody.

UNITED STATES TO HEAD ICE PATROL

International Conference for Safety at Sea Agrees on Important Points

DERELICTS AND PERIL
OF ICE TO BE REPORTED

Effective Lighting of Decks is Compulsory—International Signal Code Adopted

LONDON, Jan. 21.—Representatives of Great Britain, the United States, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, Germany, France, Italy, Spain, Sweden, Norway, Holland, Belgium, and Denmark, were present at the signing yesterday of the convention adopted by the International Conference of Safety at Sea.

It was decided that the text of the convention should not be officially published until February 15, in order to give the delegations time to communicate it to their various governments.

Mersey's Statement
Addressing the conference Lord Mersey said:

"An international service is to be established by the nations chiefly interested for the purpose of an ice patrol and ice observation, as well as the destruction of derelicts in the North Atlantic. It is to be under the control of the United States."

"The duty is imposed on all ship masters to report the presence of dangerous ice and derelicts and a code has been prepared to facilitate this reporting."

"When ice is reported on or near the track, a ship must proceed during the night at moderate speed or alter its course so as to clear the danger zone."

"The effective lighting of boat decks is provided for by the convention and the carrying of Morse lamps is made compulsory."

"An international code for urgent and important signals has been adopted."

RADIUM CURE HOSPITAL IS PROMISED

House Mines Committee Told of Millionaire Who Agrees to Build Free Hospitals

NEITHER ROCKEFELLER
NOR ANDREW CARNEGIE

Henehan Fights for Colorado's
Rights to Retain Radium
Bearing Lands

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—President J. M. Flannery of the Standard Chemical Company, told the House Mines Committee today that "an aged millionaire" plans to erect twenty hospitals costing $15,000,000 for the free radium treatment of cancer. He said each hospital will be provided with five grams of radium. He refused to disclose the millionaire's identity, but said that it is neither Rockefeller nor Carnegie.

Mine commissioner Thos Henehan of Colorado told the committee that if all radium bearing lands should be withdrawn from the public domain, the price of radium would increase to half a million dollars per gram. He favored the rights of the state. He said that all Colorado wants is to be let alone to mine her own carnotite without federal control or espionage. He wanted to give the prospectors free rein. Flannery was followed by Henehan, who recited the efforts to discover a cancer cure. He said experts had sent to Europe and had found that it had taken 350 to 400 tons of ore to produce a gram of radium. Colorado, he said, has sufficient radium to "supply the entire world's cancer victims five times over." He estimated that 200 grams would supply the American cancer victims. "I am willing to agree," said Flannery, "to furnish this amount to the government in five years and at a lower price than the government could manufacture it at the maximum figure of $80,000 per gram."

Flannery declared that radium is twenty-five times more valuable for other diseases than for cancer. He was positive that it is a cure for rheumatism. He then made the statement of the readiness of the millionaire mentioned to establish a chain of radium cure hospitals.

He finally declared that no reply had been received to the Emperor's third protest.

Several anti-administration members raked the government severely for placing too much reliance on "America's good will."

OLD SOLDIER REWARDED

ST. MARY'S, Pa., Jan. 21.—For his part in one of the bravest acts of the Franco-Prussian war, Charles Chagnet of St. Mary's, has just received recognition from the French government. And today he was proudly exhibiting a handsome bronze medal, pendant on a green and black striped ribbon.

It was 42 years ago, and in one of the hottest battles of the long conflict that Chagnet and sixteen comrades distinguished themselves. The Prussians had captured their banner and they made a successfully sally and retrieved it. Chagnet and thirteen of them returning to the ranks alive. The record of their deed was entered but it was only last March, that the French War Department rewarded the old soldiers.

MUTT AND JEFF BUMP UP AGAINST TROUBLE CAUSED BY THE RAIN

Mutt says Jeff did it. Jeff says Mutt is all to blame.

Mutt and Jeff were due at the Grand Opera House last night, but they did not get here. Mutt and Jeff had an awful row about it, but finally decided to pass it all up to the Southern Pacific and the elements. The Mutt and Jeff company were bound southward. The Newhall tunnel became impassable, and the train had to go around. Delays were such that the company failed to show up here for last night's performance. Over the telephone Manager William McCulloch of the Grand Opera House made arrangements for the show to go on at the Grand Opera House tonight. As patrons showed up at the opera house, the situation was explained, and those who wanted their money back on account of inability to go tonight were accommodated. The tickets were re-sold rapidly, for the house was almost sold out for the performance.

This was the first time since McCulloch went into the show business in 1884 that a company has failed to show up for a performance—a record probably no other show house manager on the coast can point to.

CITY PLAN EXPERT RAPs LOS ANGELES

Sydney Architect Says This City Deficient in Providing for Future Growth

Los Angeles Examiner: "Los Angeles is a wonderful city in many ways, but it is far behind in the work of city planning and adopting a comprehensive scheme of civic development for the future great city that is to rise here on the Pacific coast."

This was the statement made yesterday by M. R. Bocking, a landscape architect of Sydney, Australia, who is investigating city planning throughout the world and who is a visitor in Los Angeles. Mr. Bocking called at the city hall yesterday to see members of the local city planning commission and find out what Los Angeles is doing in the way of planning for the future.

"I have spent eighteen months in the United States visiting the various cities of the country and seeing what each is doing in the way of city planning," he continued. "Los Angeles is a remarkable city in many ways. It is beautiful and most progressive, but it is certainly deficient in planning for future development. Los Angeles should have a comprehensive city plan to work toward. Plans for this future development should be laid now. If Los Angeles waits, fabulous sums of money will have to be expended in order to carry out such a plan."

"Sydney has a city plan for future growth and development. We also have a condemnation law which makes it easy for the city of Sydney to acquire lands for public improvements."

"In the United States I think Dayton and Boston have the best city plans. These cities are looking ahead. Los Angeles has wonderful opportunities before it and should do as some of the other cities of the country are doing."

"It might be of interest to the people of Los Angeles to know that we have government owned and operated steam railroads and electric street railways, and they are being operated successfully. In Sydney we have a 2-cent street car fare."

BEARDSLEE GIVES HIMSELF UP TODAY AFTER WEEK'S SIEGE

SUMMERDALE, N. Y., Jan. 21.—After withstanding for a week a siege by a sheriff's posse, Edward Beardslee surrendered today. Beardslee recently barricaded himself in his farmhouse with his wife and nine children, when the sheriff attempted to arrest him for shooting Poormaster Putnam, who tried to take his children to the poorhouse. He declared that only lack of fuel and the resultant suffering of his family caused him to surrender.

Beardslee denied that he wanted to shoot Putnam, but said he had to defend his home. He refused to surrender to the sheriff, but turned his weapons over to Charles Backus, the friend who persuaded him to give up. He apparently expected to remain in Backus' custody, for when the sheriff's deputy appeared to take charge of him he resisted fiercely. He was overpowered after a struggle.

GRANDMA NEVER LET HER HAIR GET GRAY

Kept Her Locks Dark, Thick,
Glossy, With Sage Tea
and Sulphur

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and look years younger.—Advertisement.

Frost Resistance of Various Eucalyptus

A study of relative frost resistance of the principal species of Eucalyptus that have been planted in Southern California has just been completed by Forest Assistant Munns, who has charge of the Forest Service Experiment Station near San Bernardino. During early January, 1913, that portion of the state experienced unusually low temperatures, and the report is based upon the effect of these temperatures on twenty-six species of this genus.

The observations made show that the Manna Gum (eucalyptus viminalis), Australian Beech (E. polyanthema), Cider Gum (E. gunnii), bastard box gum (E. bicolor), and giant gum (E. regnans) are most frost resistant. Gray, red and blue gum (E. teretifolia, rostrata, and globulus) are ranked next in this respect.

Mr. Munns' reports show that many of the eucalyptus groves which at first were thought to have been entirely killed by the frost later recovered. This indicates that it is well for eucalyptus growers to wait five or six months after a freeze before cutting their groves to the ground in order to give the trees an opportunity to recover.

You Can't Get Your Rug Clean by Having It Put Through a Dust Wheel

Dry cleaning is the modern method of cleaning carpets and rugs. A thorough cleansing in benzine removes every particle of dust and moth and makes every thread as clean and pure as when it came from the loom. By this process your rug is not only absolutely clean, but its former brightness is restored.

KEEN BIT OF SLEUTH WORK

Boulder, Colo., Deputy Sheriff Lands an Embezzler of $2400

Yesterday there was landed in the Orange county jail a man by the name of John C. Morris, wanted at Boulder, Colo., for embezzling $2400 from an Elks' lodge. The arrest was the consummation of a search that lasted for months. C. B. Smith, a deputy sheriff from Boulder, who arrested Morris, said that $2300 had been spent in hunting for Morris. Smith took up the work after two private detective agencies had failed, and by clever work he located his man.

Smith came to Santa Ana about a month ago because he knew that friends of Morris were living here. He could not locate them. He wrote a letter from San Diego to one of them, offering a good job in a hotel. He secured an answer, and in that way located the friends. He secured a room in the same house with them, and through them and without their knowledge as to what his business was he located Morris, who was cooking in a restaurant in Los Angeles. Smith brought the man here, and he has now started with him for Colorado. Morris went with him without extradition papers.

MOTHER! IF CHILD'S TONGUE IS COATED

If Cross, Feverish, Constipated, Give "California Syrup of Figs"

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish; stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Don't be fooled!—Advertisement.

AMUSEMENTS

At Clune's Theater

The program at Clune's this week is of more than ordinary merit, the vaudeville numbers and the pictures being very good. When the curtain went up for the first show last evening there was a crowded house, and judging from the measure of applause the artists' efforts were appreciated. The feature picture shown last evening was entitled: "Terrors of the Jungle." This is a two-reel Selig animal scene and is full of exciting incidents from start to finish. Every scene is very realistic, and aside from its entertaining value the picture is also instructive, and would prove especially so to the young folks, who would greatly enjoy seeing the animals in their native haunts.

The famous Pathe weekly was also shown again. This picture is always enjoyed, because it touches up on all phases of life, both at home and abroad.

Perhaps the feature vaudeville number was the high-class Orpheus Quartette. They did themselves proud and no mistake about it. They were on stage a long time again, their funny sayings and songs appealing to the audience. A novel act was that presented by Boken and Benkhe. This act was in the form of a concertina violin duo. It is very seldom that concertinas are heard as they were last evening, the music produced being especially good. This is really a very fine program and it should not be missed by those who care to attend a fine, high-class entertainment. Tonight there is to be presented a Biograph drama entitled, "House of Discord," and three other good pictures.

PEAN OF PROSPERITY

"Never have I known present conditions or future prospects for a fine productive and good business season to be better."

Over and over this expression is heard from farmer, fruit grower, business man, banker—in fact from everybody who observes closely and intelligently.

While this is true of California as a whole, and especially of Southern California as a section, it can truthfully be said that in all this vast state Orange county seems to be favored of the gods to an extent far above the average.

The richness of Orange county soil and the great variety, fine quality and immense quantity of her products is an old story, the truth of which is emphasized whenever there is a climatic or financial fault in the general scheme of things.

Whenever "things are quiet" or "business is dull" in Orange county it is always due to unfounded fear of what may happen financially, to unwarranted conservatism based upon political or financial theories which are wholly fictitious in relation to the natural laws of economics, and which have no foundation of fact concerning the productive wealth of the county or the earning capacity of its people.

Take our last bank statements for instance. They showed, Jan. 13, deposits aggregating very close to five million dollars—to be exact, $4,868,483.00. Now we do not desire to make invidious comparison, and will not be specific, but it is a fact that the deposits in the Santa Ana banks are almost double those of the banks of several other towns in Southern California, and are far in excess of those of nearly all towns of our class.

Comparing Santa Ana with the average town in the east and middle west of 10,000 to 15,000 population, we find that our bank deposits often triple and even quadruple those of the less favored sections of the country.

And our deposits are made by people who get their money for products of the soil and for the labor of their hands and brains—the money is largely produced and almost wholly earned right here at home.

The fact is that in Orange county we are growing something and growing it at a profit every day in the year. There is a constant stream of staple products pouring forth from Orange county into the great consuming markets of the country, and a constant stream of returning money pouring into Orange county.

As to financial and business conditions, generally speaking, they are rapidly improving. Not only is there competent testimony to that effect from all over the county, but we have substantial evidence of the fact in mercantile business and development enterprises and building operations everywhere.

The only discordant note in the pean of prosperity is the whine of the chronic pessimist and, thank goodness, he is not numerous among the people of Orange county.

O'BRIEN FOR SECRETARY OF STATE

Not because he is a newspaper man, not on account of his being a Progressive—and a real one, at that—not for any reason under or over the fact that he is a man of the very best character and exceptional ability does the Register favor the candidacy of Florence J. O'Brien for secretary of state. Such candidacy is announced today in Mr. O'Brien's paper, the Chico Enterprise, as follows:

"F. J. O'Brien, of the Enterprise, has decided to try again for Secretary of State."

"Four years ago he was a candidate against Frank Jordan for the Republican nomination and lost it by only 2627."

"The nomination in 1910 was as good as election. This year he will run as a Progressive."

"Following the primary of 1910 the result between Jordan and O'Brien was in doubt for thirty days. It hinged largely on the count in Oakland, O'Brien ran well ahead in Berkeley, but when the whole of Alameda county was footed up it was found that Jordan had carried it by 4064."

"In Southern California, through the powerful Lincoln-Roosevelt organization, O'Brien received a handsome vote, carrying Los Angeles county by 8581 over the nearest competitor. He proposes to visit, during the spring and summer, every county, presenting his candidacy on grounds of allegiance to the principles of Governor Johnson's administration, as well as fitness for the place."

"Even though the women do vote this year, his first name, which is Florence and by which he has heard from many that they were misled at the former election, will not be used on cards, ballots or other printed matter."

NEWSY NEWS FROM NEW YORK

By Carlton Ten Eyck

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—Molehills often have been made into mountains, and in this serio-comic age tempests in teapots are of hourly occurrence, but certainly never before was there a greater hub-bub over a more insignificant matter than all this hue and cry after the tango. The poor old thing is being talked and written to death. And why? Nobody seems to know. Nobody ever yet was kidnapped, dragged by the hair onto a ball-room floor and made to dance the tango. Those who do not like it are at liberty to let it alone.

The dance, though, may be said to have received several death blows within the last few days. The Catholic church turned its thumbs down on the tango and it had an immediate effect in New York. About the same time several Irish British peeresses, who are among the leading London hostesses, publicly announced a boycott of the dance. Several weeks ago the tango was given a nasty cut in the north of Europe when the Kaiser ordered it suppressed wherever the German army officer danced, and this was followed by an attack in the south of Europe that while not so vigorous, was equally effective.

King Victor Emmanuel of Italy, without making a speech about it, barred the tango from his state ball and all the diplomats and the social leaders of Rome followed the King's example. Perhaps the first important personage to set her feet on the neck of the gyrating monster of the ball-room and the cabaret was Queen Mary of England, who called it a South American "negroid" dance and forbade the young Princess Mary to learn it.

Whether the tango is good or bad, it received a considerable set-back when Cardinal Farley and high Protestant clergymen let it be known that they opposed it and that everything possible be done to discourage it. Pope Plus has not banned the tango but he has made it plain that he disapproves of it, and prelates the world over are now fighting the tango. The New York Cardinal did not ban the

$20,000 CLUBHOUSE FOR CLUBWOMEN OF SANTA MONICA

SANTA MONICA, Jan. 21.—Yesterday was a jubilee day with the Santa Monica Bay Woman's Club. Ground was broken for a $20,000 clubhouse on Fourth street, near Wilshire boulevard. This means the reward of long and persistent effort of the most prominent women of the bay district. Mrs. D. G. Stephens, founder of the club, has been head of the building committee, and with Mrs. F. H. Taft, president; Mrs. Jessica Clark, treasurer; as her chief assistant, has enthused the entire community for the project. Work began with $11,000 raised by the women, and the remaining $9000 advanced by the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company of Los Angeles, to be repaid in five years. The site was bought with funds derived from the sale of lots at Eleventh street and Oregon avenue.

"FATHER OF LONG BEACH" LAYS CORNER STONE OF CHURCH

LONG BEACH, Jan. 21.—The cornerstone of the new $130,000 Congregational church of Long Beach, to be built at Third and Cedar, was laid yesterday afternoon, with exercises befitting the occasion, before a large concourse of people. The central figure of the occasion was the venerable Jotham Bixby, affectionately termed the "Father of Long Beach," who had cause to rejoice for two reasons: First, to him had been delegated the laying of the cornerstone of what will be one of the finest edifices in Long Beach; and secondly, that he yesterday celebrated his eighty-third birthday.

As a memorial of the occasion, Mr. Bixby was presented with a handsome solid silver trowel with an ebony handle.

EX-SENATOR CULLOM IS IN CRITICAL CONDITION

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Friends and relatives of ex-Senator Shelby M. Cullom were summoned to his bedside last night, and were informed by the attending physicians that the venerable statesman could not live more than a few days, or possibly only a few hours. Mr. Cullom, who became ill a few days ago, is suffering with general debility, attendant on old age. He is eighty-four.

To this fact is attributed the business reports showing that Germany had the dullest Christmas in many years.

Kneen who took them out in automobiles and showed them some of the beauties of the surrounding country including the Lemon Heights and Red Hill districts. All were delighted with what they saw and there is a strong probability that some of the party will locate here.

BIRTHDAYS OF FAMOUS SUFFRAGE LEADERS TO BE SOCIALLY OBSERVED

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—A dramatic tea and fete to celebrate the anniversary of the birthdays of Susan B. Anthony and Dr. Anna Howard Shaw is to be given under the auspices of the New York State Woman Suffrage Association in the grand ballroom of the new Hotel Baltimore on Monday afternoon, February 16, the affair being in the hands of forty prominent women. An entertainment in which several stars from the theatrical firmament will participate will precede the dancing and tea drinking.

Among those on the interesting program are Edith Wynne Matthison, who will give a dramatic reading; Laurette Taylor, who will appear in a little playlet; Lydia Lopokowa, who will of course dance, and Pilar Morin, the French pantomimist. In addition Mrs. Florence Fleming Noyes, who danced on the treasury steps at Washington suffrage pageant last March, will appear in "The Dance of Victory," which especially has been arranged for the occasion.

At Lincoln School

The meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association of Lincoln School, postponed from last Thursday on account of rain, will be held in the kindergarten room of Lincoln school tomorrow afternoon at 3:15. The same program will be given as formerly announced and the same ladies will serve as hostesses.

McKinley Baby Show

Everybody is interested in babies, hence everybody is expected to attend the interesting baby show (as if a baby show could be otherwise than interesting!) to be held tomorrow afternoon in the kindergarten building of McKinley school.

There will be beautiful babies, more beautiful babies and still more beautiful babies. The dimpled darlings will most of them likely be attended by fond mammas and if they are not on their good behavior, they will at least all be interesting.

The baby show opens at 2:30 o'clock and will last until 4:30, so be on hand early. It is hoped by the members of the McKinley-Parent Teacher Association, under whose auspices the affair is to be held, that a generous patronage will be given by the public. A small sum for admission, merely a nominal charge, will be taken at the door. Everybody is cordially invited to go to the baby show.

THAT GLEE CLUB CONCERT

Special Attractive Features; Good Ensemble—Local Man is Club Manager

Some of the features, aside from the admirable club work, of the Occidental College Glee Club concert to be given next Friday night at the Grand Opera House under the auspices of the Y.M.C.A. are readings by Ehrenfeld, the xylophone solo, the baritone solo by McConnell and the "Mixed Quartet," the latter being pronounced as one of the funniest of college stunts, making a big hit wherever presented. McConnell, the vocal soloist, is one of the best baritone soloists in Los Angeles. He held a position as solo-bass in the largest church in San Diego last summer and is continually being called upon for solo work.

The manager of the club is a Santa Ana man, John A. Henderson, and this fact gives a decided flavor of personal interest to the coming here of the organization. The glee club is on its eighth annual tour, winning plaudits wherever it appears. Those in Santa Ana who have had the pleasure of hearing it before will be glad of the present opportunity of hearing it again. The program for Friday night, subject of course to possible change, is given below:

PART ONE

Football Songs—Club.
"Greetings to Spring" (Strauss)—Club.
Solo, "The Gypsy Trail" (Galloway)—Wm. McConnell.
Popular Chorus (Selected)—Club.
Kindergarten Chorus (Selected)—Club.

"Bachelor of Arts" (Ward)—Club.

PART TWO

Reading (Selected)—Day Ehrenfeld.

"Bells of Shandon" (Nevin)—Club.
"On the Sea" (Buck)—Club.
Finale.

MRS. MORROW'S BUSY DAY

Hostess Yesterday Afternoon to Club; in Evening to Sunday School Class

Mrs. J. G. Morrow was hostess yesterday afternoon for the North Side Club, about thirty ladies being present. Mrs. Oliver Remsburg read more of "Miss Gible Gault" and this with the usual pleasant chat and discussion and dainty sewing whiled away the hours happily.

Mrs. Morrow had her home on North Main street most charmingly adorned with poinsettias, hyacinths and maidenhair ferns. After the other pleasures of the afternoon had been enjoyed she served a collation of chicken pates, baronet biscuits, olives, coffee, fruit nougat and popcorn.

In the evening Mrs. Morrow was again hostess, her guests being the girls of the Philathea class of the First Presbyterian church, of which she is teacher.

The girls were busy making curtains for the Philathea and Baraca class rooms in the new Sunday school addition. They stencilled the curtains with the emblems of the classes. While the young women were busy at Mrs. Morrow's home, the young men of the Baraca class were finishing the laying of carpets in the two class rooms at the church.

At the close of the evening Mrs. Morrow served home-made candy to the young ladies.

Past Matrons Met

INCENDIARISM IS SUSPECTED

Barn on Pankev Lease of Irvine Ranch Was Burned Last Night

Flames Burning in Two Places—Second Fire on Ranch Recently

Last night another barn was burned down on the ranch of the Irvine Company under circumstances that strongly indicate incendiarism. The barn was on the Pankev lease in Bonita canyon on the mesa toward the ocean. Pankev had twelve horses in the stable. The horses were all rescued, but two of them are terribly burned. Dr. Pullin was called to care for the horses.

When discovered the fire was burning in two places. Last Sunday night a barn, 200 tons of hay and twenty-six horses were burned in a fire that mysteriously started in a barn at the Irvine Company ranch house. The origin of that fire is unknown.

VALIANT FIGHT TO SAVE THE PETITION

Looks as Though County Would Furnish Required Signatures

HAVE TILL MONDAY NOON TO COMPLETE

Anti-Prize Fight Provision Almost Sure of Getting on Ballot

Orange county is doing its best to save the day for the anti-prize fight initiative petition, and reports received up to today by S. J. Jackman indicate that success is going to crown the efforts of those interested in circulating the petition here.

The petition was circulated in most of the counties of the state. When filed with the secretary of state it was found that 2,500 names were lacking to insure the matter a place on the ballot. It was then found that nearly all of the counties had filed a supplemental petition, so that in those counties no more names could be secured. Orange county was one of the few counties that had not filed a supplemental petition, and an appeal was made to this county to secure 2,500 names in addition to those already signed.

S. J. Jackman sent out about twenty-five petitions to twenty-five different churches, and asked that each church get at least 100 signers. Some of the churches will be unable to fill the petitions, while others will go far beyond the mark. Jackman thinks that an average of 100 will be secured, and if so the place of the petition on the ballot is assured. One church in Santa Ana, the First Christian, has secured 280 signatures, and is still at work.

All of these petitions should be left with County Clerk Williams as soon as possible. Jackman urges that they be turned in to the county clerk by Saturday noon, and at the latest they must be in by noon of next Monday, January 26. The clerk has to check the names over by the Great Register, and the time for his work will be short.

"Orange county people are doing their best, and I believe we are going to furnish the required number of signatures," declared Jackman this morning.

TRICK PARROT IS A FEATURE AT THE SHOW

Famous Queen Polly Will Perform Tonight—Fine Exhibit

Queen Polly is in Santa Ana. Her throne is at the California Bantam and Aviary Club exhibit on East Fourth street.

Queen Polly is a parrot, and a wonder. Her fame is extensive and well deserved. Her owner, Mrs. Cooper, has charge of the bird, and several times during each day of the show the wonderful trick bird will be put through her paces. The things this bird of intelligence can do are almost incredible. A performance is to be given this evening.

Each evening of the bantam and small bird show, which lasts until Saturday evening, an orchestra is to dispense music in an effort to run competition to the crowing of the strutting banties. The orchestra is known as the "Bantam Orchestra," the reason for the name being that the musicians are boys and girls.

There was a good crowd of visitors at the show yesterday afternoon and evening and this morning. Those who attend find a number of varieties of bantams never before exhibited in Santa Ana. Among the doves and pigeons are birds new to nearly everyone here. The standard of birds shown is exceedingly high.

CLOSE POINT IN THE CASE

Up to Judge Thomas to Decide if Taylor Case Shall be Tried

A question of jurisdiction will have to be decided by Judge Thomas before another step is taken in the trial of the action of Mrs. Minnie N. Taylor against Charles D. Taylor, Russell T. Joy and Mrs. Edith W. Murray, involving a plea for $2500 a month alimony and title to Santa Ana property worth $35,000 or $40,000.

Attorneys for Joy yesterday took the ground that the court had no jurisdiction. They said that to get jurisdiction general appearance in court must be established by Taylor or proper steps taken to get control of the property through a receiver. The defendants declared that no bond was filed by the receiver, and that Taylor has never made a general appearance, though in getting the case transferred to the federal court he made a special appearance for that purpose only. Attorneys Trippett, Williams and Bishop for Mrs. Taylor argued that in the federal court general appearance was established by Taylor in resisting the motion to send the case back to the superior court for trial. Judge Thomas took the point, which is admittedly a fine one under advisement until next Friday.

No attempt was made to secure a jury yesterday, the argument taking up the entire day.

CITRUS FRUIT CROP WILL BE 33,900 CARS FOR SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA TERRITORY

OVER EIGHTY PER CENT NORMAL CROP OF ORANGES IS ESTIMATE

Lemons About 50 Per Cent. Crop--Northern California Crop Runs Over 5,000 Cars This Year--Fruit in Fine Condition

[Riverside Press]

The Press is publishing its annual estimate of the orange and lemon crop about three weeks late this year as the desire has been to secure the figures after all danger from frost was probably passed and after the recovery of the trees from the unusual cold of last winter could be more fully determined. The reports have been prepared with unusual care and show that, in spite of the set-back last winter, there will be close to 50 per cent of a normal lemon crop and over 80 per cent of a normal orange crop.

A normal orange crop for Southern California is about 36,000 cars; we shall ship this year, according to the estimates furnished the Press, over 30,000 cars.

A full crop of lemons for Southern California is 8,000 cars; we shall ship about 3,700 cars and 200 cars from Tulare county will bring the total for the state up to 3,900 cars.

San Diego county is the only important lemon growing locality that will not make a creditable showing on shipments this year, and the report from that section indicates a good crop by next year.

Tulare county has the heaviest orange crop in its history--4,500 cars--and the shipments from other northern counties bring the total from that part of the state up to over 5,000 cars. In round numbers the citrus fruit crop of the state will be 40,000 cars--worth $20,000,000 to the growers.

EXCHANGE MANAGER PUTS STATE CROP AT 40,000 CARS

It is estimated by the California Fruit Growers' Exchange that there will be something more than 40,000 cars of oranges and lemons shipped from the state for the year beginning September 1. The distribution of shipments will be approximately as follows:

Northern California, 4,500 to 5,000 carloads.

Southern California, 38,000 to 40,000 carloads.

There will be about 4,000 carloads of lemons; 8,000 to 9,000 cars of Valencia and the balance distributed largely to navel and smaller shipments among other varieties. The estimates of January 1 indicate a larger crop than earlier estimates, probably one way or another when actual shipments have gone forward, depending upon climatic conditions and also upon the checking up of the errors in judgment in the present estimate of the different communities.

The fruit is of unusually fine color, quality and texture. The recent weather has hastened the maturity of the fruit somewhat and it will need to be handled with the greatest physical care to prevent mechanical injury, in order to reduce loss from decay to a minimum. The rough handling of this excellent crop of oranges would mean a great reduction in the returns to California on account of the loss that the producers would sustain.

Regarding the recovery from the cold weather, it is remarkable what a citrus fruit tree will stand. In most districts the orange trees have been quite generally recovered from the effects of the cold weather. In some sections where the trees were severely injured by the north winds preceding the frost, they still show a sparse foliage as compared with other districts. The lemon trees have recovered also remarkably well. The lemon trees are blooming very heavily and we may expect a heavy crop of lemons after the beginning of the coming summer.

G. HAROLD POWELL, General Manager California Fruit Growers' Exchange.

ORANGE DISTRICT WILL HAVE 85 PER CENT CROP
The Orange district will have 85 per cent of a full crop this season, and the estimated output is 2,200 cars of oranges and 350 cars of lemons. There was no damage to the trees here from the cold last winter, and the groves are in normal condition. The fruit is fine quality, sizes are desirable, and the navels are well matured for the season.

Barring unfavorable weather conditions, the Orange county orange crop will be of superior quality and the size of the fruit promises to be larger than last year. Our growers are giving more attention to fertilization and irrigation than ever before and the adoption of more intelligent and effective methods is having its effect.

Holiday shipments from this section were very light, only seven cars having been sent out.

D. E. HUFF, Mgr. Orange County Fruit Exchange.

ANAHEIM WILL HAVE CROP UP TO NORMAL

The crop from this section never looked better in size and quality than it does this year. Practically none of our groves were injured by the freeze last year and all seem to have a fair average crop to a heavy crop. Everything points to our being able to send to market some of the finest oranges that we have ever produced this season.

The estimated output from Anaheim for the season is 500 cars.

G. W. SANDILANDS, Sec'y Anaheim Fruit Association.

PLACENTIA CROP IS HEAVY AND VERY FINE

We have a fine crop of fruit; a good normal crop. We shipped from Placentia station 650 cars last season in spite of the frost. This year, having had no winds, we will have 1,100 cars. The navels are very advanced, being of high color and fine eating. At the present time two or three growers are picking small sizes; only eight cars were shipped for the Christmas trade. Growers seem to feel satisfied to hold.

The trees as a whole show up in A-No. 1 condition.

A. S. BRADFORD.

PRESENT DAY CLUB HEARD FINE PAPER

The Present Day Club held its regular monthly meeting Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lou Hickox on French street, the president, Mrs. A. J. Crookshank, presiding.

An unusually large number of club members and several visitors were present to hear the paper of the evening, "Modern Tendencies of Theological Thought," by Rev. Otto Russell. This proved to be one of the best of many interesting papers that have been presented to the club. Mr. Russell had evidently given a great deal of time and thought to its preparation, and although the subject might be considered a somewhat heavy one, it was presented in such a clear, simple way that everyone was exceedingly interested from the beginning to the end.

In introducing his subject Mr. Russell stated that besides reading books and many magazine articles in preparation for his task, he had written to various leaders of theological thought not only in the United States but in Canada and England as well, and that he had been much pleased to receive replies from thirty-two of these busy men. From all of these sources of information he came to the conclusion that there is no single theological tendency, but many. Of these he chose what he considered the four most important to present to them to be bound in their theological thinking. More and more men are realizing their ability and privilege to read and interpret for themselves. There is today a revolution in religious thinking and a breaking of mental shackles.

"1. The tendency away from creedal authority is exceedingly healthful and helpful. Men will not be bound today by the thinking of centuries ago; since they are not thus bound in other things we cannot expect them to be bound in their theological thinking. More and more men are realizing their ability and privilege to read and interpret for themselves. There is today a revolution in religious thinking and a breaking of mental shackles.

"2. Scientific investigation assists

Five Big League Stars Who Have Jumped to the Federal League

Already five big league stars have jumped to the Federal League from the American and National leagues--and this is still the season of winter baseball. What will happen by the time the spring training begins cannot be foretold.

Joe Tinker, under contract to Cincinnati or Brooklyn--which cannot now be determined--has signed to become the manager of the Chicago club of the Federals. There he will come into direct competition with Murphy's Cubs of the National and Comiskey's White Sox of the American League.

Mordecai Brown, once the greatest pitcher in the country, and at this time under contract to the Cincinnati club of the National League, having been signed there when Tinker was the manager of the Reds, has taken charge of the St. Louis club of the Federal League.

Otto Knabe, the great second baseman of the Philadelphia National League club, has gone to Baltimore.

men in placing proper value on some things that pertain to theological thinking. Science teaches us not to make a belief in religious faith. Science is the handmaid to theology, and not sufficient of itself alone, for it needs the helpmeet of faith and ministry. Jesus did not base his claims on miracles alone. When we take miracle and ministry we have the Christ, so when we take science and faith we have the complement to soul investigation.

"3. Every age and century presents new problems. These must be solved, not by iridescent dreaming, but by heroic endeavor. The church must either grapple herself for the task, or she will be girded and led whither she would not go. To me there was never a time when there was more to do. Never a time when greater service was demanded of the church in the social world. We are becoming more and more convinced that the philosophy of the religion of Jesus must be adopted as a practical creed for the conduct of business, and man's all round dealing with man, and thus will be found the speediest and sanest and surest solution of the difficulties which are now agitating men's minds in the social, industrial and political revolutions.

"4. The tendency away from creedal authority must rest somewhere, and that somewhere is not in the revelation of God. Neither Roman Catholicism nor Christian Science will prevail if they continue to hold to the policy of not allowing men to read and interpret for themselves, their minds unshackled either by the priests or Mrs. Eddy's interpretation of the reading. The demand of the modern mind is to read, think and interpret for itself the Bible, which still remains the rule of faith and practice. The Christ is still the founder of the church. As Dr. Henry Van Dyke said, 'Never did mankind crave more deeply the assurance that God, the unseen, almighty spirit, is in Christ; that God the Eternal Father is like Christ.'

manager of the new Federal League club. He will not compete with any big league club there, but the International League has a club in Baltimore, and it is a very important part of organized baseball.

King Cole, the once brilliant pitcher of the Chicago Cubs, has just announced he has signed with Tinker's Chicago Federals. Cole comes from the American Association, but he had been signed by Frank Chance, manager of the New York American League club for the coming season. He had shown, in his work of 1913 with the Milwaukee club of the American Association, that he was back to his best form when with the Cubs. Chance counted much on his aid for the 1914 season in New York, so the loss to him will be greater than other clubs will have in the loss of Tinker, Brown and Knabe.

Catcher Killifer of the Philadelphia National League club is one of the best catchers in the country. He did most of the catching last year, despite the fact that Red Dooin, the manager, is something of a catcher himself.

But Dooin found a man whom he could trust in his place behind the bat.

Other important players, if not stars, have also been signed by clubs of the Federal League. Among them are Ad Brennan of the Philadelphia club--the man who won fame by knocking out Manager McGraw of the Giants last year on the field in Philadelphia--Jimmy Sheppard, the famous outfielder; Stovall, former manager of the Browns of St. Louis; Beals, once of the New York Giants; Packard of Cincinnati; McKeechie, once second baseman for Pittsburgh; Barbeau, once third baseman for Pittsburgh; and Schlady, long in the International League.

One thing is holding back many big league players from accepting offers of Federal League club managers--the question of money. Will the Federal League last through the season and thus be able to pay salaries? If its managers could assure players of their money they would likely get many more stars of the big leagues.

MILLION AND A HALF ACRES OF LAND RESTORED TO ENTRY

Large Acres Withdrawn as Coal and Phosphate Lands Again Become Public Domain

More than 1,678,000 acres of withdrawn lands in the Western states were restored to entry and about 50,000 acres were withdrawn during December, according to a statement given out by Secretary Franklin K. Lane, of the Interior Department. The result is a net decrease in outstanding withdrawals in the public land states of nearly 1,630,000 acres. The action was based on recommendations to the secretary by the United States Geological Survey.

The states most affected are Montana, in which 120,000 acres heretofore included in phosphate lands were shown by the Geological Survey to be not phosphate bearing and were therefore restored to entry; North Dakota, in which the withdrawals of coal land were likewise reduced by over 646,000 acres; and Washington and Wyoming, where there were reductions of nearly 500,000 and 400,000, respectively, in coal-land withdrawals. The principal areas withdrawn during the month were in California and Wyoming. In California public-water reserves aggregating 36,000 acres were created, and in Wyoming more than 12,000 acres were withdrawn for the same purpose. The net effect of this action has been to reduce the entire area withdrawn in the public land states from somewhat less than 67,900,000 acres at the beginning of the month to a little less than 66,270,000 acres at the end of the month. This area withdrawn is to be compared with approximately 88,000,000 acres that have thus far been classified under the several mineral-land laws.

During the month of December somewhat less than 2,000,000 acres were classified as non-irrigable land and by order of the Secretary were opened to entry under the enlarged homestead act. This makes a total of about 207,375,000 acres of land that have been classified as non-irrigable since the passage of the act.

The total area of lands which have been classified in Western States up to the end of December aggregates nearly 295,700,000 acres.

Never was there an age in which it was sweeter or more needful to hear above the tumult of noises and clash of opinions. His gentle and authoritative voice saying, 'I am the resurrection and the Life.' If the church of today loses that voice she will lose her life.

The reading of the paper was followed by a most appreciative and interesting discussion lasting until the hour for closing arrived.

At the February meeting a paper will be given by Mr. A. W. Ruten relating to our divorce laws.

SUE TO CANCEL $175,000 IN BONDS

Companion to Yorba Linda Water Case Has Been Started

In the superior court of Los Angeles yesterday Yorba Linda water users brought an action against Jacob Stern, Herman W. Frank, M. N. Jewmark, Peter Janss, the Janss Investment Company, the Stern Realty Company and the Yorba Linda Water Company to cancel $175,000 bonds and to recover $15,000, alleged to represent interest paid on the bonds.

The Yorba Linda Water Company issued the bonds in 1911 to the Janss Investment Company to reimburse it for the water system which irrigates the Yorba Linda tract. It is contended, however, that the buyers of ranches in the tract had already paid the Janss company at the rate of $50 an acre, and suit is brought on that ground.

This is a companion suit to the one brought in Orange county. The action here involves water rights and remedial measures necessary under the contracts of the property owners with the promoters. The action to annul the bonds was brought in Los Angeles county because the principal place of business of the Yorba Linda Water Co. is in Los Angeles.

In the complaint in the action here it is alleged that the bonds were issued without any compensation whatever being received by the water company.

COST OF COAL IN LIVES
WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.--Every hundred million short tons of coal produced in the United States in 1912 cost 429 lives in mine accidents, or a total of 2360 lives, for a production of 550,000,000 short tons of coal, according to a report just issued by the Bureau of Mines, Department of the Interior. This loss of life in proportion to the number of millions of tons mined, 4.29 per cent, is the smallest in the records available at the bureau. In 1907 it soared to 6.93 per cent.

The actual number of lives lost in 1912 was less than in any previous year since 1896, when 2116 men lost their lives in and around coal mines. In 1907, the number of deaths reached 3197. Yet, with a similar loss of life, the production of coal in 1912 was the greatest in the country's history.

In figuring deaths, the bureau counts a man who dies within 18 months of the time of the accident as having been "fatally hurt," which makes the figures for 1912 a little incomplete. For each 1000 men engaged in mining, 23.15 were killed in 1912; and this is the lowest proportion since 1899, when 2.07 men were killed out of each thousand.

"This general improvement," says the report, "has been brought about by a combination of causes, the principal one of which has been more efficient and effective mine inspection on the part of the state mining departments and state mine inspectors throughout the country, supplemented by greater care on the part of both operators and the miners.

"The investigative and educational work of the Bureau of Mines has kept both the operator and the miner alive to the various dangers connected with coal mining and has shown what precautions should be taken to avoid these dangers."

The report declares, however, that a still greater decrease in the number of killed and injured, if proper care will be exercised by operators, superintendents and by the miners themselves will result.

HOBOS PLAN REFORMS

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 20.--That Uncle Sam shall furnish employment to all the unemployed at all seasons; furnish transportation free to the place of employment, and a federal eight-hour law are the principal demands which the Missouri delegates, who left today for Cleveland, will present to the convention of the National Brotherhood Welfare Association, which convenes January 27. Among other demands formulated by the state convention of hoboes here under the leadership of Dr. James Eads How for the amelioration of the condition of the unemployed are:

That the vagrancy law shall be so defined that it will not apply to the unemployed. That the constitution be amended so that the government shall be compelled to furnish work. That equal suffrage shall be granted to all adults. That the privilege of voting be extended to all citizens, who, in pursuing their employment, are away from their homes on election day. That an industrial army be formed, under the direction of the Secretary of Labor in which unemployed men and women can enlist, and be assigned work for periods of three months with the privilege of re-enlisting. That every postoffice be converted into an employment bureau.

Anty Drudge--"You are a dear, thoughtful little girl, and I know your mother is going to like yours and George's present better than anything else you could have given her."

It's well to be prepared for all kinds of work, and lots of it, these days. If you have Fels-Naptha Soap on hand, you won't have to bother to think whether you are ready to go ahead and wash, scrub or houseclean. Fels-Naptha does the hard part of your work for you and saves time and strength. It dissolves grease, takes out stains of all kinds--even stubborn blood stains. It works best in cool or lukewarm water.

Full directions are on the Red and Green Wrapper. Better buy Fels-Naptha by the carton or box.

ANOTHER GOOD CROP TO COME

Garden Grove Ranchers Are All Well Pleased With the Outlook

Rev. Thomas Moving from Santa Ana to Take Charge of Church

GARDEN GROVE, Jan. 21.—The rainfall for the last storm was 3.2 in. and for the season 6.47 in. Many of the farmers are plowing their land and preparing for another good crop. The chili crop is not all harvested as yet, and some of the farmers will have to rush their work in order to get the present crop off in time to put on the next year's crop, as the land requires a great deal of work to raise chilies successfully.

On account of the rain Raymond Beardsley was hindered in going to San Bernardino with an auto load of walnut trees, but will start Tuesday morning with about 1600 trees.

Walter Freeman, a former resident of this vicinity, who has been in Buhi, Idaho, for some time, will return here this week to remain and make his home.

N. Carmichael is in Los Angeles today on business and visiting friends.

K. N. Copley was a business visitor to Los Angeles on Saturday.

Powell and McKee have traded their grocery business, stock and buildings to H. S. Ayres for a ten acre piece of land five of which is set to bearing walnuts and is situated one mile east of Garden Grove. The place was formerly owned by F. B. Mills. Mr. Ayres took charge of the store last Friday.

Drs. Brooks and Guinn performed a slight operation on the son of F. C. Harrison for abscess, last Saturday. The boy is doing nicely and will probably be well again soon.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Hobbs has a new baby girl born on Wednesday morning, Jan. 15.

Mrs. Hobbs is suffering from an attack of rheumatism which has settled in her right hip and limb.

The revival meetings at the Methodist church will continue under the direction of Pastor Hull with Mr. and Mrs. Potts, the evangelistic musician and singers.

Rev. Thomas of Santa Ana, the new pastor of the Baptist church, will move to Garden Grove this week so that he can be near his work. He will occupy the house formerly owned and occupied by Mrs. Mary Reed.

Mrs. Dela Anderson is setting her ten acre ranch one and a half miles northeast of town to walnut trees. Her son Arthur is superintending the work.

Geo. W. Clark of Newhope district spent Sunday at the home of N. Carmichael.

Dr. Prentice is here visiting friends. He is looking for a suitable location to make a home.

H. A. Bon Durant has sold his interest in the Preston and Bon Durant grocery to E. A. Preston. The new firm bought a new auto last week.

Mrs. Emma Burton, who spent last week at the home of S. Penfold, returned to her home in Santa Ana Saturday.

QUIT MEAT IF YOUR KIDNEYS ACT BADLY

Take Tablespoonful of Salts if Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the combined lithia and lemon juice, combined for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.—Advertisement.

KANSAS ADMISSION PICNIC

TO SAVE INDIAN VILLAGES
GRAND FORKS, N. Dak., Jan. 20.—Dr. O. G. Libby, head of the North Dakota Historical Society, has commenced a movement with the object in view of preserving the historic Indian villages of the state, notably that of Graham's island, Benson county, which is now regarded as the oldest Indian village in the state and possibly the oldest in the northwest.

SHORT COURSES FOR PAINTERS
AMES, Ia., Jan. 21.—While many states have "short courses" for instruction for the benefit of farmers, fruit growers and stock raisers, and even housewives, in connection with the educational scheme of state colleges, Iowa has broken the ice in the way of industrial education by organizing the first short course for painters and decorators held in connection with the state convention of union painters and decorators.

The engineering college has charge of the work and the first session found 150 painters and decorators from all over the state in attendance. It was expected that the short course for other trades will be a feature in the future and is likely to spread to other states. Tradesmen and manufacturers in Massachusetts, Connecticut, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Illinois, and Wisconsin are investigating the idea with a view of organizing similar courses in their states. With the passing of the apprentice system of education, the short course under the state auspices is thought to be the next step toward education of mechanics in many lines.

DRAMA ABROAD AND AT HOME

By Beau Rialto

WILL GIVE NAUTCH DANCES FOR AMERICANS

Miss Roshanara, daughter of an English army officer in India, has come to the United States to show Americans the Nautch dances of India. She thinks they will create much interest, for no one has ever done these dances gracefully here. Miss Roshanara was forbidden by her parents to practice these dances while she lived in India, but she says she went out among the natives and learned how to dance them, and now she feels that she is as much of an adept as the best Indian dancers.

Barry has written almost every play in which Maude Adams has appeared and she has exploited his most successful work. In this play Leonora is a mother, riding in a railway carriage with a sick child. A man sharing the compartment refuses to allow the window to be closed and Leonora pushes him out. Was he killed? Is Leonora a murderer? That's the thread of the piece.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—"A Little Water on the Side," at the Hudson, is about as meaningless as its name. It is a one-man show. William Collier wrote it—with a little help from Grant Stewart. William Collier named it. The same person makes all of what fun there is in it, and the Colliers, the aforesaid William, and his wife Paula Marr, and his son, "Buster," make up the bulk of the cast. But "A Little Water on the Side" is no chaser, as might be inferred. A stage "chaser," be it known, is the final term in the four-day vaudeville houses, that is used to wear out the audience and chase them out in time for the next houseful. The first night audience even the veterans who survived Collier's early season frosts, "Who's Who" and "The Brand of Cain," sat through to the last curtain.

The hero of the piece is a ruralite who stays in New York long enough to acquire the London clothes and cigarette propensity and then goes back home. He owns a strip of land, with "a little water on the side" that is worthless until his dead father's arch enemy, the town tightwad, wants it for a railroad bridge. The hero worships him in the deal, gets rich and marries the tightwad's daughter. That's all except country store comedy.

"The Legend of Leonora," at the Empire presents a queer anomaly. In it Maude Adams, of Peter Pan fame, appears at her best, while (Sir) James M. Barry (Bart), the author, is perhaps at his worst. Miss Adams does some superb serious and emotional acting not at all comparable to her Peter Pan, but considerably better than her work in "What Every Woman Knows." Barry may have written worse plays, but if so they are still in his "barrel" and have never been produced on this side.

Barry has written almost every play in which Maude Adams has appeared and she has exploited his most successful work. In this play Leonora is a mother, riding in a railway carriage with a sick child. A man sharing the compartment refuses to allow the window to be closed and Leonora pushes him out. Was he killed? Is Leonora a murderer? That's the thread of the piece.

Perhaps never before in Broadway history was a winning production closed in the midst of a highly successful and profitable run. That is what happened to Ethel Barrymore's "Tanto." The play was taken off at the Empire while Miss Barrymore was packing the house nightly, to make room for Maude Adams in "The Legend of Leonora." Charles Frohman could do nothing else because his contract with Author Barry, made many months ago, called for the staging of his play at the Empire on a certain date in January.

The great artists in the theatrical profession are sticklers for realism in detail to a degree that would astonish the uninitiated. A remarkable instance of this is to be seen in Sarah Bernhardt's remarkable success, "Jean Dore," now running at her theater in Paris. Mme Bernhardt, of course, is a star, and she is also the director. In one scene a purchase of eggs is made. The great actress was at a loss to know whether the eggs should be placed in a paper bag, or done up in a small paste-board box, as some exclusive dealers deliver them. The members of the company were divided on the proposition. "What difference did it make anyway?" they asked. But it made a great difference to Bernhardt. She would go to real life to solve the problem of the eggs. Accordingly she ordered her automobile and drove to a dairy nearby.

"I want a half dozen eggs," she told the old woman who kept the shop. The eggs were produced and the woman wrapped them carefully in an old newspaper drawn from under the shelf. That settled it. In "Jean Dore" the eggs are wrapped each night in a newspaper.

David Belasco, perhaps the most artistic producer in America, is equally insistent on the smallest of details, things that could not possibly be noticed "out front." Harriet Otis Dellenbaugh, now appearing as the excellently acted character woman with Frances Starr in Henri Bernstein's "The Secret," under Belasco's direction, tells this one. It was an early rehearsal of the piece, in a scene where the character woman, who is a hypochondriac, uses a handkerchief almost continuously. The rehearsal being in a way informal, Miss Dellenbaugh obediently consulted the offending bit of finery to her pocket and sent a call-boy out to the nearest shop to buy her a plain handkerchief, not even hemstitched and innocent of scent. But she wondered how many of the first night audience could have seen an initial on her handkerchief or smelled its dainty aroma.
